

U.S. Publishes
Proof Commies
Are Conducting
War In S.V.Nam

By SPENCER DAVIS
WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States made public today documented charges that Communist North Viet Nam is waging a deliberate campaign of concealed aggression "as real as that of an invading army" against South Viet Nam.

The 14,000-word white paper issued by the State Department declared that if peace could be restored in South Viet Nam the United States would be ready at once to reduce its military involvement.

But it warned this country "will not abandon friends who want to remain free. It will do what must be done to help them."

UP TO HANOI

"The choice now between peace and continued and increasingly destructive conflict is one for the authorities in Hanoi to make."

New evidence of North Viet Nam aggressor has accumulated since 1961 when the State Department last issued a report on North Viet Nam's effort to seize the south, the new white paper declared.

The government of the United States believes that evidence should be presented to its own citizens and to the world. It is important for free men to know what has been happening in Viet Nam, and how and why. That is the purpose of this report.

WAR EXPANDS

"The war in Viet Nam has reached new levels of intensity," it said. "The elaborate effort by the Communist regime in North Viet Nam to conquer the south has grown, not diminished."

Military men, technicians, political organizers, propagandists and secret agents have been infiltrating into the republic of Viet Nam from the north in growing numbers.

The flow of Communist-supplied weapons, particularly those of large caliber, has increased. Communications links with Hanoi are extensive. Despite the heavy casualties of three years of fighting, the hard core Viet Cong force is considerably larger now than it was at the end of 1961."

PRESENT FACTS

The report gave these particulars:

Manpower — hard-core Viet Cong strength now is estimated at more than 32,000 compared to less than 20,000 in 1961. It has five regimental headquarters, 50 battalions and an estimated 139 companies. Supporting the

COUNTY UNITS
SHARE PROFIT
OF TRACK BETS

Adams County organizations, the 4-H, FFA and the two county fairs, have received $9,503.65 from the state because numerous horse fans backed up their favorites in Pennsylvania's harness races with bets at the parimutuel windows.

A portion of the money received by the state from the race horse betting is allocated to promote agriculture. The state Department of Agriculture said $539,218 has been distributed statewide under the program. Secretary Leland H. Bull said $55,000 of the amount represented funds provided through annual appropriations for agricultural fairs made by the state legislature, and $484,218 came from the state revenue from the parimutuel betting at the race tracks.

FAIRS BENEFIT

Adams County organizations receiving money under the program included the South Mountain Fair, Arendtsville, which received $3,000; the Adams County Fair, between Abbottstown and East Berlin, which received $2,585.37; the Adams County FFA activities fund, Gettysburg, which received $1,918.28 and the Adams County 4-H development fund, Biglerville, which received $2,000.

Under the program the fairs receive from the state a sum based upon the premiums and other awards paid out by the fairs to those competing in agricultural exhibits. The money for the FFA and 4-H is based upon programs for advancement of agriculture provided by those organizations. The money provided by the state for the FFA and 4-H is based upon new programs, which were not previously operated by the groups. As a result a number of activities, programs and awards have been set up by both FFA and 4-H during the last two years as a direct result of the availability of the additional funds from the horse racing, while continuing programs financed by other funds.

Flatley Undergoes Three Operations; Condition Is Critical; Laud Local M.D.

James F. Flatley, 33-year-old Hercules Aleotor foreman who was critically burned February 4, has undergone three operations since his admission to the Millard Fillmore Hospital in Buffalo, according to word received from the hospital today.

Those operations include the first of two skin grafts, one on each arm, using skin donated by one of his brothers.

Additional skin grafts are scheduled for Monday.

"Mr. Flatley is eating well and his attitude is good and that's very important," the hospital statement said. "Everyone up here is pulling for him and his case is attracting a tremendous amount of interest."

COMMAND DR. BARANSKY

Doctors at Millard Fillmore have expressed "heartfelt praise" for the treatment given Flatley at the Warner Hospital here immediately after the accident. There was special praise for the work of Dr. Edward Baranski of the Warner Hospital staff, whose treatment of Flatley was described by the Buffalo specialists as "excellent."

Flatley, who on Friday completed his 21st day of hospitalization, is receiving a new treatment for burns that involves "exposure therapy" with diluted silver nitrate solutions.

"We haven't the faintest idea about the possible cost of the treatment for Mr. Flatley," a hospital public relations staff member said. "That just hasn't come into the picture. We know it's going to be a prolonged treatment. Our first concern is to keep him alive and to give him the best possible treatment."

"His critical period will extend through the next month. Doctors still rate his chances against surviving as higher than his chances for surviving."

HOLD SERVICE OF COMMUNION ON WEDNESDAY

The Hunterstown Ruritan Club, sponsor of a Scout unit in that community, voted to help with the current solicitation for funds there in the Boy Scout finance drive. The club members at their monthly dinner meeting Friday evening also agreed to make a donation to the Scout fund.

The club, with President Donald Rhodes presiding, decided to sponsor again this year the annual community Easter egg hunt in Ruritan Park on Easter Sunday.

The report of the treasurer showed the club recently made a $50 payment on its park development debt, reducing the figure to $1,545. Treasurer Emory Sibert presented his monthly report showing $138 in the club treasury. A sign will be erected at the park soon to identify the recreational area and the club voted to continue its pine tree plantings in the park area.

Methodists To Hold Quarterly Session

The Fourth Quarterly Conference for the Gettysburg Methodist Church will be held Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the Adult Sunday School room with Dr. Edgar A. Henry, superintendent of the Harrisburg district in charge.

This will be Dr. Henry's final visit in the office of superintendent at his term expires at the annual conference session at Dickinson College in June.

The Fourth Quarterly Conference, the most important governing body in Methodist polity, will have representatives from all areas of the local church organization. This body elects all church officials, commissions, trustees and important committees. It requires progress reports from the pastor and other officials of the church on work completed thus far in the church year, since June, 1964.

Although voting in the conference is restricted to elected officials, all members and friends of the congregation are invited to attend and observe the proceedings.

Adult Bandsman To Play For Fun

On Monday at 8 p.m. a first rehearsal and organizational meeting will be held in the Gettysburg High School band room for the purpose of surveying the interest in an adult band of a recreational nature.

The group would meet weekly for rehearsals and would play strictly "for the fun of it"—no concerts, no parades. It would be under the direction of the instrumental music staff of the Gettysburg schools.

All adults interested in this type of activity are asked to report Monday with instruments. Further information can be secured from Robert G. Zeigler, Neil Justice or Roger Parsals.

COUPLE WEDS IN FAIRFIELD THIS MORNING

The marriage of Miss Viola F. Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall, Orrtanna R. 1, to James R. Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sanders, R. 5, was solemnized in St. Mary's Catholic Church, Fairfield, at 11:15 o'clock this morning. The single-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Daniel J. Mahoney, pastor of the church at a Nuptial Mass. The church was decorated with white gladioli and carnations. The organist, Miss Ethel Grace Allison, played traditional wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, John D. Marshall Jr., was attired in a street-length dress of white Chantilly lace with a scooped neckline, fitted bodice, full skirt and wrist-length sleeves. Her veil was of silk and floated from a regal crown trimmed with simulated pearls and crystal beads. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and feathered pink carnations and a white Bible.

RECEPTION IS HELD

The maid of honor was Miss Florence Marshall, Orrtanna R. 1, sister of the bride, who wore a lavender street-length dress of chiffon with scooped neckline and cummerbund. The skirt was of lavender lace, wrist-length sleeve jacket. She wore a white pillbox hat and a carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and white chrysanthemums and white feathered carnations.

Donald Sanders, R. 5, brother of the groom, was the best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride for the immediate families, after which the couple left on an unannounced wedding trip. For traveling the bride chose a gray wool suit with black accessories and upon their return will reside on R. 5.

The bride graduated from Fairfield High School in 1961 and is employed by Knouse Food Corp., Inc., Orrtanna.

The bridegroom attended DeLonge Catholic High School and is employed by the Rogel Construction Co., Harrisburg, and is also engaged in farming.

FILM ON LIONS

A film on "Big Game Hunting in Wyoming" will be shown to members of the Gettysburg Lions Club Monday evening at 6 o'clock at the Varsity Diner. Reservations will be taken for a ladies' night meeting to be held at the Altland House, Abbottstown, on March 15.

ISSUED LICENSE

Dennis K. Martin, Emmitsburg, and Carol L. Shriner, Thurmont, have been issued a marriage license in Westminster.

Parents will be asked to indicate the most convenient time for the interviews during the school day, after school or in the evening.

Winebrenner Marks 40th Anniversary Monday As Borough Engineer Here

LeRoy H. Winebrenner Monday will mark the 40th anniversary of his service as borough engineer here and in Littlestown.

Winebrenner first joined the highway force for Gettysburg at the March meeting of borough council in 1925. Later in the same month he was appointed borough engineer for Littlestown at the March meeting of that council.

In observance of the anniversary, the Baltimore St. engineer plans to display a map of Gettysburg at Monday evening's meeting of the local borough council in the engine house. The map shows Gettysburg as it was at the time Winebrenner was first employed in 1925 — and in red are the additions that have been made to the borough since, including the new streets that have been added.

HAS SEEN CHANGES

Similarly, in Littlestown, Winebrenner has had charge of construction of most of the borough streets put in during the last four decades.

In both boroughs the local man has been responsible during the 40-year period for reconstructing most of the streets that were in the towns when he joined the highway force.

SCOUTS' DRIVE FOR FUNDS HAS TOPPED $3,200

Contributions to the current finances of the Black Walnut Boy Scout District totaled $3,221.30, Finance Campaign Chairman Charles Kingston said today. Goal of the campaign is $6,800.

Reports at the first meeting of the local chairman showed two communities already over the top, Kingston said, and a number of others were "so near that by the time of the next report night, March 17, at 7:30 p.m. in the Biglerville Bank, they too should have reached or exceeded their quotas."

The campaign chairman paid tribute to Mrs. James Nelson, chairman of the Idaville-Gardners area, and to Paul Bretzman, chairman for the Bendersville area.

Mrs. Nelson, president of the ladies' auxiliary of the Boy Scouts in the Idaville-Gardners area, took over the chairmanship of the finance drive in that section for the first time this year. Last year the Idaville-Gardners area raised $208. At the first report meeting Mrs. Nelson turned in $266.

TOP '64 FIGURES

Similarly, Kingston said, Ben-derville gave $17,45 last year.

At the first report meeting Bretzman turned in $129.25 and reported the campaign not complete in his community.

Amounts raised so far in the campaign with the prior year's donations listed in parentheses are:

Arendtsville, $209.75 ($436.50); Aspers, nothing, ($73); Bendersville, $129.25, ($117.45); Biglerville, $100, ($220); Bonneauville, nothing, ($55); Two Taverns, $121, ($151.20); Castron, $50, ($132.30); Heidersburg, $48.25, ($72.55); Hunterstown, nothing, ($97); Gardners-Idaville, $286.25, ($208); Littlestown, $475, ($100); Mummasburg, $45.50, ($75.35); Orrtanna, nothing, ($91.50); Fairfield, nothing, ($305.72); York Springs, $106.50, ($249.50), and special gifts, $1,650, ($3,034.93).

Man's portrayal of nature through art from B.C. to the present was discussed by Clara Elsemer Peck, 965 Highland Ave., at an Epsilon Delta chapter meeting Tuesday. She was an illustrative artist for a number of years. She elaborated on the different styles, techniques and variations of the landscape artists in the different countries and periods of time. In her resume of the topic "Nature — the Artist's Landscape," she pointed out that the artist's desire to portray nature stemmed from his desire of self-expression and creative instinct. Mrs. Peck was introduced by Evie Sternier, who was in charge of the culture program.

The business meeting was conducted by President Joyce Wetzel. The chapter will make a contribution to the James F. Flatley Survival Fund. The members were reminded also of their contributions for the rummage sale to be held Saturday, March 20, at the Adams County National Bank building. Refreshments on the George Washington theme were served by Hostesses Carol Martin and Viola May. The meeting was held at the Presbyterian Church after which the members assisted in the Easter Seal mailing campaign. The next regular meeting will be held at the Adams Electric building March 9 in the form of a covered dish social beginning at 6:30 p.m. followed by special speaker, Richard Guise. The regular culture program will be on "Tools For the Art of Life — Speech" with Joyce Wetzel in charge.

The Harrisburg Road Home-makers will meet Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Kent Wetherow, R. 6, to hear Mrs. Sheila Arnold discuss "Lines and Designs."

The Christian Science Society will conduct morning devotions over WGET Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Grube, 143 Chambersburg St., are observing their 21st wedding anniversary today.

The Phi Mu Alumnae Club of Gettysburg College will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock in North Dormitory with Mrs. Anne Larkin, hostess.

The Bandoleer Club will meet with Mrs. Raymond Sheely, W. Lincoln Ave., Wednesday noon at 12 o'clock.

Foster C. Beard, 113 Carlisle St., was admitted Friday to the Holy Spirit Hospital, Camp Hill, where he will undergo major surgery Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Holbert Riley, 200 W. Middle St., was honored Friday evening at a surprise party in observance of their 27th wedding anniversary at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Maitland R. 3. In addition to Mrs. Maitland, who was the former Joyce Riley, the couple are the parents of three other daughters, Linda and Kathy, at home, and Mrs. Robert L. Howe, Gettysburg, the former Jean Riley. Guests included the couple's sons-in-law and grandchildren, Stephen and Scott Maitland and Robin Howe. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Luther Deane, Mrs. John Bupp and Mrs. Andrew Riley and daughters, Shirley and Polly, all of Seven Stars; Mrs. Pauline Mowery, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rohanna and Mr. and Mrs. Cyril McMaster, Gettysburg; Mr. and Mrs. Shepard, Bendersville; Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Walters, Bonneaville; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Little, Littlestown, and Conway Bushey, Biglerville.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley received a large reproduction of a Robert Wood landscape, "October Gold," a money tree, an anniversary guest book and other gifts.

The regular meeting of the SUS Auxiliary will be held Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the post room, E. Middle St.

Hardman Will Is Filed For Probate

The Will of Edna Hardman, late of Gettysburg, who died February 20 at the age of 71, was filed for probate Friday in the register and recorder's office. A daughter, Dorothy L. Wright, 344 S. Washington St., is executrix of the $29,150 estate. A life estate in the property at 40 W. Middle St. is left to Mrs. Hardman's husband, Joseph Hardman. Properties at 340 and 344 S. Washington St. are left to the daughter, Mrs. Wright. A granddaughter, Bonnie Moorehead, is left a property at 59 South St. The remainder of the estate goes to the widow.

FILM FOR LIONS

A film on "Big Game Hunting in Wyoming" will be shown to members of the Gettysburg Lions Club Monday evening at 6 o'clock at the Varsity Diner. Reservations will be taken for a ladies' night meeting to be held at the Warner Hotel this morning in an ambulance after becoming ill.

HOSPITAL PATIENT

Wayne Recard, 24, Orrtanna R. 1, was taken to the Warner Hospital this morning in an ambulance after becoming ill.

COUNTIANS IN TWO CRASHES NEAR HANOVER

Four persons were injured in two accidents in the Hanover area Friday.

Mrs. Uima C. Warner, 66, of Hanover, was admitted to the Hanover General Hospital for observation of possible internal injuries after her car collided with the rear of a truck which had stopped along the Littlestown highway, about four miles west of Hanover, while a school bus was turning around.

Conegawa Twp. police said the school bus, owned by Littlestown Joint School District, was operated by Clifford L. Ruland, 29, Littlestown R. 1, and was occupied by 16 students. Police said the bus was not involved in the collision.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

Police said Mrs. Warner was moved in the Hanover Fire Company ambulance to the hospital where her condition was listed as satisfactory Friday night.

Police said the truck which had stopped on the highway is owned by L. E. Baker, Hanover, and was operated by John E. Baker, 36, of Hanover.

Three persons suffered minor injuries when a car and walk-in-type delivery truck collided at the intersection of Fulton and E. Walnut Sts., Hanover, Friday at 1:20 p.m.

The operator of the car, Gerald E. Neiderer, 18, of Gettysburg R. 5, who was arrested by Hanover police for failure to yield the right of way to oncoming traffic, suffered a bruised left arm, police said.

The driver of the truck, Edward R. Donnelly, 39, of Hanover, was treated at the Hanover General Hospital for a fractured left collar bone, while his helper, Bernard Jackson, 36, also of Hanover, was treated for lacerations of the left hand and forehead. Both were discharged.

Police said the truck, owned by Morrison Vending Service, Hanover, came to a halt against a utility pole.

The couple is living in Abbottstown.

Wedding

Menges—Kroft

Miss Joyce Elizabeth Kroft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis Kroft, Jacobs St., East Berlin, and Raymond Jacob Menges, son of Mrs. Marie Menges, Abbottstown, and the late John Menges, were married February 22 in Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, near Abbottstown. The Rev. Michael F. Barrett officiated the double-ring ceremony at a nuptial Mass.

Mrs. Wayne Stambaugh, Abbottstown, the bridegroom's cousin, was organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents.

Barbara Ann Kroft was maid of honor for her sister.

Theron J. Menges, New Oxford, was best man. A reception was held at the bride's home.

The bride attended Delone Catholic High School. She is a secretary at Grizzell's Gun Shop, East Berlin. The bridegroom was graduated from the same high school.

The couple is living in Abbottstown.

Whittinghill—Hofe

Mr. and Mrs. Elmon W. Williams, Buford Ave., have announced the marriage of Mrs. Williams' son, A. 2/C E. Thomas Whittinghill, to Miss Judith Ann Hofe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hofe, Barlow St.

The wedding took place this month in St. Peter's Catholic Church, Greeley, Colo.

Airman Whittinghill, a graduate of Gettysburg High School in 1963, entered the Air Force in July, 1963, and has been stationed as a supply specialist at the Francis E. Arnett Air Force Base at Cheyenne, Wyo., since November, 1963.

His bride is a graduate of Gettysburg High School with the class of 1962 and was employed by the Pennsylvania state police headquarters in Harrisburg as a fireman technician.

The couple is residing in Cheyenne.

PRIVATE MAINTENANCE

The second petition seeks to force the township supervisors to maintain a mile and a half of dirt road at a fork on the Slate Ridge School and Mill Road which residents have discovered were ordained by the township in 1908. About 10 property owners who reside in the area have been maintaining the road for years and estimated that they have spent "thousands of dollars" on it. One resident said he has used "at least 400 tons of stones" on the section near his property. They have appealed before for maintenance of the road, but no action was ever taken.

The discussion revealed that previous boards of supervisors have been aware of the township's liability in maintaining the road in question. The present board agreed Friday evening to maintain the road in the future.

Bucher told the group, "this is where a planning commission would be valuable." He said "these people have been done a great injustice" in having been forced to maintain a township road privately. He said "this board admits that the township has been negligent in permitting the continuation of a 'horse and buggy' road in our township. These roads have never been abandoned and are the responsibility of the township road board."

H. L. MENCKEN COLLECTION IS GIVEN COLLEGE

A collection of works by and about H. L. Mencken, the "Sage of Baltimore," has been given to the Gettysburg College library by Dr. Wilton C. Dinges, of Glyndon, Md.

Dr. Dinges' decision to make the Gettysburg College library a home for his collection was prompted on a suggestion by William J. Geiselman, an alumnus, class of 1950, executive vice-president of the Emeco Corporation, Hanover, of which Dr. Dinges is president.

More than 150 volumes of Menckeniana are now in the library and the collection is constantly growing in variety, form, and media as the donor adds regularly to the collection. Although it can never approach the rich basic collection of Mencken manuscripts, first editions, papers and memorabilia which the author gave to the Enoch Pratt Library of Baltimore, the collection at Gettysburg boasts some extraordinary items.

SMART SET FILES

Among these are a copy of "Ventures Into Verse" published in 1903; "The American Language" published in 1919; his autobiography in three volumes; and "Jungen and the Censor"; also photostate copies of 640 of Mencken's editorials which appeared in The Baltimore Sun for decades.

Files of "The Smart Set," for which Mencken was literary critic from 1908-1923 and coeditor with George Jean Nathan from 1914-1923, and of "The American Mercury" which was synonymous with his name during his editorship from 1924-1933, enlarge the printed works in the collection at Gettysburg.

Along with the distinctive Menckeniana, Mr. Dinges has added 10 items to the Rare Book Room of the library, the earliest of which was published in 1562.

List New Address Filing Tax Returns

Taxpayers who move after filing their income tax returns should make sure the postmaster has their new address, Kenneth O. Hook, district director of Internal Revenue, said today.

This is particularly important, he said, if there is a refund coming. If the move is made before filing, list the new address on the return.

Carefully printed or typewritten identification of the taxpayer's name and address are vitally important to prompt processing of the return.

(Continued From Page 1) full skirt and a self-belt with a bow. She wore a crown trimmed with pearls and chin-length veil in romance shade. She carried a cascade bouquet of feathered carnations and roses.

The best man was Joseph Temple, Seven Stars.

The ushers were Richard Baumgardner, Manchester, Md., and David Baumgardner, Taneytown, R. I., brothers of the bride.

The mother of the bride wore an aqua printed dress and a corsage of yellow roses with feathered white carnations.

HOLD RECEPTION

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Harney Fire Hall, Harney, Md., for approximately 150 guests. Following the reception the couple left for a two-week wedding trip to Florida and Louisiana, and upon their return will reside on R. 2. For her going away outfit the bride chose a melon colored suit with black accessories.

The bride is a 1953 graduate of Taneytown High School and is presently employed by the Rudisill law firm, Hanover, as a legal secretary.

The groom attended Gettysburg High School, served in the U.S. Navy during World War II in the European Theater and is employed by Knouse Foods, Peach Glen.

Out-of-town guests were present from Baltimore, Harrisburg, Hanover, Littlestown, Taneytown, Columbia and Westminster, Md.

"LOST FOREVER"

I wasted a golden treasure . . . sixty emeralds I threw away . . . and try as I will to recapture them . . . each quest only gathers dismay . . . I let them slip right through my fingers . . . as a child drops a handful of sand . . . for the priceless of their great value . . . like others I did not understand . . . many times over I've sought them . . . But not even a trace could I find . . . hoping I'd catch a glimpse of them . . . in the depths of my heart or my mind . . . to say I regret what transpired . . . could never express how I feel . . . for I wasted a fabulous fortune . . . and the wound in my heart will not heal . . . yet, I've learned a great deal from my error . . . time lost is time gone forever . . . from now on I'll use well each minute . . . for they will return to me never.

OFFICERS FOR CIVICS CLUB ARE INDUCTED

At a recent meeting of the St. Francis Xavier Civics Club, the following officers were installed: President, Charles Frasch; secretary, Craig Coston; treasurer, David James, and sergeant at arms, Glenn Riley.

Committees appointed by the president include: Bulletin board, entertainment and library.

The president also appointed a committee to find the requirements needed to run for office and discussed and read about the general elections and about the candidates. Posters were made by the members for the elections.

Members also were assigned to committees to interview persons on community problems and learn how club members might be of assistance in improving conditions including recreational facilities in this community.

CHECK ON DROPOUTS

There was a discussion on poverty conditions in this country and what is being done to correct them.

Reports were made by members who went to the public school's board of education to find the number of dropouts in the last year in the nation, state and community. Another member got figures from the employment office about pay in jobs open to dropouts and the entertainment committee gave a play on dropouts.

The club is considering plans for a paper drive with the receipts to go into the club treasury. The club has discussed juvenile delinquency and the importance of family togetherness, the pros and cons of youth centers and other recreational activities that draw teen-agers away from home.

A group of club members have been assisting Sister John Francis of Catholic Charities throughout the year.

List 129 Members For Credit Bureau

Membership in the Credit Bureau of Adams County now numbers 129. Ernest Dulaney, manager of the bureau, reported Thursday evening at the quarterly meeting of the bureau's directors in Ditzler's Restaurant, Biglerville.

Dulaney reported that "prospects are good for adding a few more county merchants to the membership list." He also urged the member merchants and lending institutions "to make more use of the bureau facilities in order to help promote a healthier credit climate in the trade area served by the organization."

President Carl Prosser presided. After a discussion of office hours for the bureau, it was decided that until the end of the fiscal year the hours of the office will continue as before. The next meeting of the directors will be held April 13 at a time and place to be announced.

National

trend is the result of President Kennedy's burial in Arlington Cemetery in November, 1963, but they admit that inquiries from living veterans have increased rapidly since that time. They receive an average of three letters a week from all over the country seeking information on the official procedure for interment here.

18 SECTIONS FILLED

Of the 24 sections in the cemetery, 18 are filled with Union Civil War dead. The other six sections are veterans of more recent wars. While Park Service officials point out that no grave spaces are reserved, they presently are attempting to locate the widows of 91 survivors of World War II veterans who asked to be buried beside their husbands in Section 3, the only section in the park which had allowed for separate graves. In all other sections, widows and children are buried in the same grave with the veteran. Some of the widows have remarried and may prefer to be buried elsewhere, the authorities believe, but until they receive a definite cancellation of the request the graves may not be used for other veterans, they say.

There are 62 National Cemeteries in the U. S., seven of which are under the jurisdiction of the Department of Interior and attached to a National Park. Civil War cemeteries closed because of lack of space include Antietam, Vicksburg, Fredericksburg-Spotsylvania, Poplar Grove and Yorktown. For many years following the first World War there were almost no requests for burials at Gettysburg, but the re-burial program after World War II revived public interest.

25 PER YEAR

Since 1948, the Park Service reports, an average of about 25 veterans a year were interred here. However, in 1964 a total of 60 new graves was filled. In January this year there were eight burials. Park officials predict that at this rate they will inter 60-100 veterans in 1965.

They explain the increase this way:

"Many veterans have reached the age where they can be expected to die. Many are in their 90's and older. They are not necessarily dying from the effects of military service, although many spent their last days in Veterans' Hospitals. We have buried many men in the past few years who suffered fatal heart attacks, other illnesses or death from accidents."

Any veteran of any war, honorably discharged, regardless of length of service, is eligible for burial in any of the National Cemeteries in the U. S., Hawaii and Alaska. However, graves are prepared only after the request is verified and burial is authorized by the Records Department in Washington, D.C., or the Federal Records Center, St. Louis, Mo.

INDIAN CHIEF HERE

Veterans of all races and religions are buried in the Gettysburg National Cemetery. A Cherokee Indian chief, a World War I private, was interred a few months ago. Visitors to the cemetery may see a cross or a Star of David on many of the grave markers. The headstone of Protestant veterans are without religious markings.

The Gettysburg cemetery was dedicated by President Lincoln Nov. 9, 1963, to "these honored dead" who "gave their last full measure of devotion" in the Battle of Gettysburg. On that day fewer than 200 graves were placed. Upon establishment of the National Cemetery the dead were removed from their shallow graves surrounding the areas of Pickett's Charge, Culp's Hill, Death Valley and others to permanent resting places. The Park Service lists 1,664 unidentified Union dead at the total of 4,650 veterans. In addition there are 2,041 Civil War veterans, not necessarily veterans of the Battle of Gettysburg.

Of the total, 979 casualties of the July 1-3 Battle were mutilated beyond all recognition, with even a shred of uniform to identify them with a state or a regiment. These heroes were interred in a common plot in one section of the cemetery, designated "unknown."

Today's Talk

INTERESTS

I have noted that those who have the largest number of interests to engage their minds and bodies are not only the happiest, but the most creative and useful. People who devote themselves to but one objective in life usually burn themselves out before attaining additional years that might have been theirs to enjoy.

People with many interests are never dull ones with whom we talk. Also they are alive, and their minds radiate and inspire. People who have learned to furnish their bodies with a varied and balanced diet, for example, always live healthier and longer lives. The mind, being our greatest pilot and overseer, influences the life of these bodies of ours far more than we ever realize. As has been said: "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he."

With plenty to do, and a variety of interests to engage our time, worry, with all its destructive power, finds it difficult to make a lodgment in the mind. In like manner fear is crowded out. But there is always plenty of room in the mind, no matter how greatly it is taxed, for an abiding faith. Without this faith there is little power given to the activities of the mind, in all its many enterprises.

All of our interests should be happy ones. Then a mere crowding of them won't matter, for we can have a clear approach to each. There is no limitation to the roads to the mind. Interests can enter by any of them. And the amount of knowledge that can enter the mind is stupendous. No one has ever filled it too full!

Youth is full of interests, so that if we would carry youth along with us, as the years are accumulated, we should carry the interests of youth with us and keep adding to them, as the more youthful ones disappear. It has been said that the body changes every seven years. If this is true, we ought to have a new set of interests ready to replace the old, thus to face the best of life that remains "yet to be." In Browning's words, "the last of life, for which the first was made."

Just Folks

THE WHIPLASH

The time a fellow does his best
Most frequently is when he's pressed,When want is walking at his side
And there is much he must provide.When hunger of the winter's chill
Is whiplash to man's lagging will
He struggles forward to his goal
With all he has of heart and soul.A fellow comfortably fed
And snugly housed and done with dreadIs not so apt to fret his mind
With problems deep, of any kind.
When he from pressing want is freedAnd satisfied is every need,
A fellow's genius tends to shirk
And lose the zest and will for work.In all the world there's no disease
So harmful to mankind as ease.
It weakens courage, saps the will,
And eats away the charm of skill.It softens muscle; dulls the mind;
Makes all to idleness inclined,
But want's the spur, by every test,
Which urges man to do his best.

BREAK SPY RING

CAIRO (AP) — The government-controlled newspaper Al Ahram said today an espionage network has been broken up and among those arrested were some German nationals.

The report did not identify the Germans. It linked the arrests with the mysterious disappearance earlier this week of six West Germans in Cairo.

The battlefield or eat Sunday dinner, as they choose.

Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower visited her Gettysburg farm home today, accompanied by several guests. A rumor spread through town that the first furniture had been moved into the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Martin, R. 4, announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Catherine, to Richard A. Flickinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Flickinger, R. 5.

Miss Martin was graduated from De L'One Catholic High School, McSherrystown, in 1954. Her fiance, who attended Gettysburg High School, is engaged in farming. No date has been set for the wedding.

The Metropolitan Philadelphia Railway Assn. plans to run a special train from Philadelphia to Gettysburg, via the Pennsylvania and Western Maryland Railroads, on Sunday, May 1, and about 500 to 600 people are expected to make the trip.

The plans call for the excursion train to arrive here at 12:40 p.m., for a two-hour stop, for the passengers to either visit

Littlestown News

NEW MEMBERS
INDUCTED BY HONOR GROUP

The Lambda Tau Chapter of the National Honor Society of Littlestown High School presented a "surprise" assembly for the senior high students Wednesday afternoon. The purpose of the assembly was to induct new members into the society.

As the students gathered in the auditorium, Barry Wisotzkey played organ selections, among which was "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

John Burgoon, society president, opened the program for which the theme was "Great Americans." The four principles upon which the National Honor Society is founded were related to outstanding Americans and presented to the audience by these seniors: Ann Mayers told of George Washington for his leadership; Joyce Kershner selected Abraham Lincoln for his qualities of character; the service of Franklin Delano Roosevelt was exemplified by Jackie Elder, and the scholarship of John F. Kennedy was presented by Patricia Wallace. Silhouettes of these men, framed in gold, formed the background setting for this portion of the program.

CHOOSE OFFICERS

Linda Senn and Jean Hornberger presented pins, cards and the pledge to the following inductees: Seniors, Shirley Anderson, Darlene Barnes, James Blocher, Patricia Little, Elwood Mummert and Thomas Sager; Juniors, Dennis Heltbride, Dennis Rager, Robert Snearinger and Jean Yealy.

In his message to the students, Frank E. Basehor, high school principal, congratulated the inductees. Mrs. Ralph E. Barley, society advisor, was assisted in arranging the program by the following members of the faculty: Mr. Basehor, Mrs. Fred Kauffman, Donald C. Fesser, M. Charles Rebert and H. Dean Stover. The stage and lighting were in charge of Anne Mayers and Charles Senn.

At the conclusion of the assembly, the inductees, society members and guests went to the home-making room for a tea. The affair was arranged by the members. Mrs. Donald C. Sheely, home economics teacher, was in charge of the tea table. The inductees carried out the rules and regulations of initiation on Thursday.

At the society business meeting the 1965-66 officers were elected as follows: President, Robert Snearinger; vice-president, Dennis Heltbride; secretary, Dennis Heltbride; treasurer, Dennis Rager; treasurer, Jean Yealy. The annual trip by the society to New York City has been scheduled for May 4 and 5.

The March gathering of the Ladies' Aid Society of Grace Lutheran Church, Two Taverns, will be held in the parish hall at 7:30 p.m. Monday.

Mrs. James V. Yingling is chairman of the hostess committee for the meeting of the Loyalty Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church at 7:30 p.m. on Monday at the church.

Boy Scout Troop No. 84 will meet at the Community Center on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Lightning Causes
Deaths Of Twelve

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Lightning Friday night killed at least 12 persons when it touched off a dynamite deposit near the mouth of a tunnel being built to link the north and south zones of Rio de Janeiro.

More than 30 others were injured by the blast which sent tons of rock and debris tumbling down over the tunnel mouth.

A second lightning bolt killed a 17-year-old girl and injured four persons.

Both bolts hit at the base of Corcovado Mountain atop which stands a giant statue of Christ the Redeemer with arms outstretched.

New Oxford Rocks Scotland 72-52 Before Huge Crowd To Enter District 3 Playoffs

A well balanced attack including strong board work shot the New Oxford High School basketball team off to an early first period lead and into a one-sided 72-52 win over Scotland Friday evening on the Gettysburg High School floor before a capacity crowd.

The contest, which had nothing to do with the Adams-Franklin League of which both are members, was to decide the league's representative in the District 3 Class C playoffs. The Colonials will play either Millersburg, Upper Dauphin or Lykens next Thursday evening at 7:30 in the Hershey Sports Arena.

Larry Phiel opened the slow moving first period with a jumper from the key. However, Dennis Marlett and Ken Green bounded back with a pair of corner shots to put Scotland in a 4-2 lead with only 4:21 to go in the period. John Harner added a charity toss for the Colonials and Phiel tied the game at 3:12 with another free throw. After John Summers dropped in a pair of fouls, Ken O'Brien swished a shot from the corner to knot the count at 6-6.

COLONIALS OPEN LEAD

At the 1:33 mark, Jock Sneddon went in for a two-hand lay-up followed by another O'Brien toss from the key. That was the last time the Cadets from Franklin County were in the game. Harner and Jim Kemp closed out the first period with a pair of free throws and a corner jumper, respectively to put New Oxford in a 12-8 lead at the end of the first eight minutes.

The scoring was spotty on the part of both teams during the first four and a half minutes of the second quarter. Then with 4:01 remaining in the half, Sneddon and Phiel increased the Colonials' margin to 26-18. By the end of the half, Coach Jake Diviney's cagers had built a comfortable 33-22 lead.

New Oxford used primarily a zone defense which kept the Cadets well to the outside. Scotland landed only 22 of 68 floor shots, but managed to pull off 51 rebounds. The Cadets' main problem was ball handling as they had trouble connecting on their passes. New Oxford's board game was at its best. The Colonials pulled down 65 rebounds, most of them coming in the first three periods. Sneddon led in this department with 17 while Harner accounted for 13. New Oxford was 27 for 89 from the field.

CADETS SPURT

The Colonials held Scotland to only nine points during the third period and rammed their lead to 57-31 going into the final stanza. During the last quarter, both coaches cleared their benches, but it was the Scotland bench which was the stronger. The Cadet reserves tallied 15 straight points during the last 2:30 while New Oxford was held scoreless during that stretch.

Sneddon and Harner paced the New Oxford attack with 20 and 18 points, respectively. Phiel chipped in with 12 counters. Ken O'Brien carried the big load for Scotland with 14 points. Sneddon landed nine of 19 field shots and Harner was six for 18. O'Brien accounted for six of his 17 floor tries.

EDUCATION FOR INDUSTRY
"Segregation" Of Vocational Education Is Obsolete
New Economic Order Requires New Skills

By JIM DAN HILL
Maj. Gen., Army (Retired)

AMERICA is in a new industrial, commercial revolution. Changes are far more rapid than in the original revolution when the steam powered factories made handicraft production as obsolete as Great Great Grandma's spinning wheel.

In a recent essay in this newspaper, I called attention to changing employment patterns within this new economic order. In many states, we have planned rather well for the students who seek the four-year traditional, academic university educations toward the historic professions.

The area of neglect, I pointed out, is in applicatory, formula knowledge combined with skills of eyes and hands for the young people needed in the offices, laboratories, at work benches, and in automation equipment maintenance teams essential to this new industrial revolution.

Unskilled labor is being minimized almost to the vanishing point. The blue collar of the skilled, factory worker is rapidly being outnumbered by wearers of laboratory aprons, smocks, eye-shades and other attire better suited to new duties.

These changes, I thought, emphasized the need for new educational patterns at the post-high school level; i.e., technical courses integrated with conventional junior college curriculums.

THE RESPONSE to this proposal, it seemed to me, thoroughly nonprovocative essay was indeed surprising. Some teachers were quite articulate. Most communications were supplementary, informational and helpful.

Charles H. Hooker, counselor, Lake View High School, San Angelo, Tex., for example, puts his finger on a grave lack of proper counseling materials applicable to high school students who are oriented toward technical and trade school education.

Others made similar suggestions, but Mr. Hooker underlined his observations by enclosing a bulletin from the University of Iowa. That institution's Prof. Kenneth B. Hoyt is indeed launching a long overdue research project to fill the very need Mr. Hooker wisely deplores.

Another complaint about the inadequacies of high school counseling had the theme that almost all such counselors are graduates of traditional, academic university curriculums; hence, they consistently advise their pupils within and only from their own educational experience.

CONG INVADES
VIET NAM LINE

DA NANG, South Viet Nam (AP) — Authoritative military sources said Friday North Viet Nam has infiltrated elements of a combat division via the off-bombarded trails of Laos into South Viet Nam's 1st Army Corps area, which fronts on the 17th Parallel.

Such a movement would follow up Communist infiltration which U.S. officials estimated last month had landed 10,000 fighting men — 90 per cent of North Vietnamese origin — to reinforce the Viet Cong.

The divisional command was reported set up in the Viet Cong-held Do Xa area of Quang Ngai Province, about 50 miles south of Da Nang, a U.S.-Vietnamese airbase.

The move was made despite intensive U.S. aerial strikes at Communist-held trails through eastern Laos and further heightened a danger that South Viet Nam could be cut in two, sources at Da Nang said.

SCRIBE NOTES
SIDE EFFECTS
OF TELEVISION

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — Television, now emerging from adolescence to maturity, has made a fantastic impact on the nation's habits — greater, perhaps, than most people realize.

In addition to the medium's major contributions in enlightening and elevating, there have been some curious side effects.

For instance, television has turned me into a compulsive weather-worrier. In the good old days of radio, I would hear my favorite morning reader of headlines announce calmly that the day would be fair and cold, or warm and rainy. And after a reassuring glance out of the window, I would clothe myself accordingly and get about the business of the day.

FEARFUL, NOT GRATEFUL

Nowadays, I find myself anxiously scanning the "Today Show's" weather maps, noting the alarming arrows ominous warnings. And instead of being grateful for today's sunshine, I find myself fearfully anticipating tomorrow's blizzard — which often never arrives.

At this moment I am not certain whether my failure to be a popular member of the local jet set is caused by the fact that I use an ineffective mouth wash.

Says Governor
Must Be Lobbyist

CHESTER, Pa. (AP) — Gov. Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey said Friday that a governor "must be the people's lobbyist in the Capitol."

Hughes, in a speech prepared for delivery at Pennsylvania Military College, said that a modern governor would probably be unrecognizable to his predecessors.

"He is no longer the ceremonial leader that he once was," Hughes said. "He has become an initiating and driving force in the policy-making process, and he has assumed broad responsibilities for a wide area of the public's business."

FILM COLONY
GABBLERS OVER
MISS HEPBURN

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Because Audrey Hepburn was scratched before she got to the post, the Hollywood Oscar derby has the whole film colony gabbling today.

Miss Hepburn, star of "My Fair Lady" on the screen, didn't get nominated for the Motion Picture Academy awards. But Julie Andrews — who created Eliza Doolittle on Broadway — did.

Miss Andrews wasn't cast in the Warner Bros. film version. Audrey got the part. But Julie's selection as a best actress candidate resulted from "Mary Poppins," which led the pack with hers and 12 other nominations.

VOICE AGAINST WARNER

The vote against Audrey — even Warner Bros. admits — is more a vote against Jack L. Warner. The studio boss passed up Julie for the movie although her price was $75,000 compared with Audrey's $1 million.

Then a few weeks ago, when Julie received the Hollywood Foreign Press award, Warner in a speech couldn't remember her name.

"I didn't mean it as a slight," explains Warner. "In this business you're lucky if you remember your own name half the time."

HEADED FOR RECORDS

"I'm disappointed she didn't get nominated for an Oscar but I still say I'm right in casting her for the part," says Warner. Audrey rated critical raves for her performance and the picture is headed for box-office records.

When the movie started, Miss Andrews never had made a picture. Walter Disney cast her as "Mary Poppins" and she emerged a box-office movie star. But Disney, whose name alone sells his pictures, can star an unknown movie name.

Warner, with an $18-million investment, couldn't afford such a gamble.

About 110,000,000 Americans go to church regularly.

luctuary decree Thursday.

"She was passionately ambitious and thought New York was the only place for an artist. It was a matter of husband vs. career, and she wanted the career."

Varda said they had been wed in Paris in 1955 and she left him three years later.

Communist States Fear
Moscow Meet May Bring
Soviet-Chinese ShowdownBy WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

The Russians, probably wishing they'd never started the business, appear to have little choice but to go ahead with the international Communist meeting scheduled to open Monday.

Far from helping heal the world Communist rift, the session is likely to aggravate it.

At best, from the Soviet viewpoint, the meeting will be just about meaningless, an opportunity to produce public ructions of denunciation of the United States and in private to debate fruitlessly whether the world Communist movement is drifting.

LACK ENTHUSIASM

Clearly there is a widespread lack of enthusiasm among the invited parties. Moscow invited 25 which, with the Soviet party, framed the 1960 Moscow declaration.

Three parties — the Chinese, the big Indonesian party and the Albanian — already have rejected the invitation. Five more — Romanian, North Korean, North Vietnamese, Japanese and British — are likely to stay away.

The result may be a turnout of 17 or less of the invited 25, a sorry spectacle of Moscow's leadership.

POLES DOUBT WISDOM

Even the Polish party has been expressing doubts of the wisdom of the meeting, which was supposed to prepare for a conference of all parties to study the rift and sort out conflicting views. Possibly there are doubts even in the Soviet party itself.

But Moscow has itself in a box. It has committed itself to the meeting and would be reluctant at this late date to back away. That would look like surrender to Peking. The Kremlin hardly wants to leave the impression that it bows to Chinese pressure.

AWKWARD TIMING

The meeting comes at an awkward time for Moscow. The Viet Nam crisis has reached new heights of tension and the Chinese point an accusing finger at Moscow. Fearful of being involved in what may explode in Asia, the Russians have supported the idea of negotiations to remove the fuse. The Chinese, scenting Communist victory, show no taste for negotiations.

PROVOKES CHINESE

The Kremlin leadership probably has provoked the Chinese anew. It has tried to overleap Peking in Asia and seek support for a policy of cautious Communist expansion in an era of "peaceful coexistence." It has reacted, despite what happened in Viet Nam, that it still seeks normal relations with Washington.

This activity hardly could please Peking. Reacting to it, Chinese politburo member Peng Cheng called for even more belligerence toward the United States, implying the Russians were scared to view the United States as "a paper tiger being beaten everywhere in the world."

PARTIES NERVOUS

Reviews Apple Production Potential In Processing States In Eastern U.S.

BY THOMAS E. PIPER

Adams County Farm Agent

Michigan output. This suggests more interregional competition for us in the processed fruit business. Our present dominance is not guaranteed forever, even though we feel we are part and parcel of the most popular area of the United States. It will take more than the current rate of processing expansion to absorb expected larger quantities of fruit coming on the market by 1970. Either new processing outlets must be developed, or the fresh market will need added attention. Probably the industry will work on both types of outlets, though consumer preference seems to favor processed outlets.

The increases in bearing surface in these three processing states serve notice that growers expect to be in business for some time to come.

Many hay mows are already empty because of last summer's drought. Adams County farmers should prepare now for early pasture to cut down on additional feed costs.

Two crops offered excellent possibilities for earlier pasture this spring. Both involve timely applications of nitrogen fertilizer soon.

Winter small grains, especially wheat and rye, can provide pasture two to three weeks earlier than normal. To increase pasture yields, top dress these crops soon with 50 pounds per acre of actual nitrogen and then pasture only when soil conditions are favorable. Will spring grazing affect grain yields? This depends on how severely and how late in the season you graze. Grain yield reductions of 10 to 30 per cent are normal with moderate spring grazing.

Permanent grass pastures can also provide early spring grazing if topdressed soon with 50 to 70 per acre of actual nitrogen. This is possible if they are well limed and have not been applied during the past year, apply 50 to 70 pounds per acre of each of these nutrients in addition to the nitrogen.

To assure efficient utilization with either type pasture, topdress with nitrogen only about one-quarter acre per animal to be pastured.

CARE FOR BEES

As soon as the weather permits, check your bees. The very cold winter so far, after a short honey crop in many areas last fall, will find the bees weak or low on food.

Clean out the opening to see if there is sufficient food. A colony needs at least two frames of food in reserve at all times. Sugar syrup should be fed only when bees can fly or the outside temperature is near 50 degrees. Dry granulated sugar, although not as good as syrup, may be fed at any time.

Stimulating feeding is a big help in building a strong colony necessary to produce a crop of money from the early nectar flows from tulip, poplar and locust as well as for pollination. Start this feeding about six weeks before the bees are needed, or about the middle of March. Use a sugar made up of two parts sugar to one part water by volume. Honey diluted with an equal amount of water may be used. Add 0.5 gram of sulfathiazole to each gallon of syrup to help prevent American foulbrood. Stop feeding sugar when the first super is added to prevent the drug being stored in the honey.

Muhammad Henchmen Frisk Everyone At Convention; Maintain Constant Watch

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY

CHICAGO (AP) — They hung from the rafters. They mingled in the crowd. They kicked out newsmen. They asked policemen to surrender their revolvers.

They are the stern elite corps of the Black Muslims known as the Fruit of Islam, the men responsible for the security of Elijah Muhammad, head of the black nationalist sect.

The occasion was the opening day of the Muslims' annual convention in Chicago. This time the Muslims and Chicago Police had the same aim: protect Muhammad.

CONSTANT VIGILANCE

During Muhammad's hour-and-a-half speech to the convention, the highly disciplined guards, trained as karate experts, were at his side, standing at attention.

On the short drives from Muhammad's South Side mansion to the coliseum, the guards rode in autos in front of and behind their leader.

Their presence was ominous to the unwelcome: the white man.

"NOT FOOLING"

"They have no sense of humor," said Felix Bolo, a reporter for Agence France-Presse. "They are not fooling."

The rigorous security included two thorough searches of every person entering the oval-shaped searched by female Black Muslims in a separate room.

The more athletic guards were assigned to perch high in the rafters of the coliseum where they scanned activities below.

SEARCHED NEWSMEN

Newsmen had to submit to a 20-minute frisk for weapons and personal effects considered contraband by the Fruit of Islam.

Along with their coats and hats, the reporters relinquished their pens, knives, nail files, cigarettes and lighters.

Photographers' rolls of film were checked to make sure none contained a bomb.

The 70 police stationed outside the coliseum refused to be searched, although officials agreed to keep uniformed officers out of the coliseum.

INSIDE SECURITY

Even without police, inside security was extraordinary. Fruit of Islam guards were stationed 25 feet apart in the balcony, in clusters on the main floor every 25 feet, and at the front and rear of the platform where Muhammad held forth.

A Negro newsman had the

POLICE ESCORT TO GUARD BODY OF MALCOLM X

By AUSTIN SCOTT

NEW YORK (AP) — Amid massive police protection, the body of militant black supremacists leader Malcolm X will be buried in a Muslim ceremony today, six days after a team of assassins ended his controversial life.

The body, sheathed neck to toe in a white Muslim robe, was moved quickly and quietly early today from a closely guarded Harlem funeral home to the Faith Temple of God in Christ, about 20 blocks away, where funeral rites are to be held. A dozen police cars accompanied the hearse.

22,000 AT VIEWING

More than 22,000 persons, some in tears, some simply curious, filed past the body of the tall, bearded former Harlem underworld figure during the four days it lay in a polished copper coffin in the Unity Funeral Home.

Police have charged two of the five men they believe took part in the slaying. The black nationalist leader who urged Negroes to fight violence with violence was shot down on the stage of the Audubon Ballroom, in full view of some 400 who had come to hear him address a rally.

RIVAL GROUP LINKED

One of those arrested, Norman 3X Butler, 26, provided the first link between Malcolm's murderers and a rival anti-white group, the Chicago-based Black Muslims of Elijah Muhammad.

Butler, allegedly a Black Muslim "enforcer" or muscleman, was held without bail on a homicide charge, along with previously arrested Talmadge Hayer, 22, a Negro from Paterson, N.J.

Ever since Malcolm, 39, was murdered, police have worked on the theory that his bitter 1964 break with the patriarchal Muhammad, after 12 years of his most effective spokesman, lay at the root of the slaying.

MUHAMMAD DENIALS

Muhammad, who is holding his annual convention in Chicago, aid perhaps represent 7 percent of the population. They are fugitives from Communist action — Pathet Lao and North Vietnamese drives against various minority tribes living on high ground.

WASHINGTON (AP)

A $373,000 contract has been awarded to the Army Engineers to C. Davis Inc., of Conshohocken, Pa., for construction of flood-control works on the Cowanesque River at Elkland, Pa., it was announced Friday.

The wiry, light-skinned, 67-year-old Negro told more than 3,000 of his followers Friday that Malcolm was "teaching blood bath" and "got what he preached."

Butler was arrested last month in connection with the shooting of another Muslim leader, Benjamin Brown, a city corrections officer. Like Malcolm, Brown set up his own mosque after he left Muhammad's secretive, racist organization. He was wounded in the shoulder, and is still recuperating at home.

Butler tried unsuccessfully in 1963 to join the New York City Police Department. He passed all tests for patrolman except a character examination.

Aged Man Admits Killing A Woman

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Benjamin Shortes, 73, convicted twice previously on homicide charges, says he's responsible for the death of another person, police report.

Shortes was charged with homicide Friday after he walked into a police station and confessed responsibility for the death of Sarah Davis, 56, police said.

Police quoted Shortes as saying he struck Miss Davis during a quarrel last Monday and her head struck a stove as she fell. Investigators, checking the story found the woman dead.

Shortes was sentenced to serve 6-to-12 years in 1944 for the fatal beating of James Scott 68, police said. In July, 1953, he was convicted of fatally beating Eleanor Hayes, 49, and drew another 6-to-12-year term.

STUNT PILOT KILLED FRIDAY

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Stunt pilot Johnny Foyle wanted to win the aerobatic trophy for the outstanding pilot in this weekend's air show here.

Instead, the trophy will be named in honor of Foyle, who lost his life guiding his crippled biplane away from a residential area before it crashed Friday.

Foyle, 38, of Baltimore, could have parachuted to safety. But he didn't.

His stunt plane was damaged in a collision with another plane while shooting a television sequence.

It started into a dive toward a section of expensive homes.

"He horsed it up away from the homes," a witness said, then he jumped.

It was too late. Foyle's body was found near the wreckage. His parachute was only partly opened.

The other plane was piloted by Alger McGinty of Fort Lauderdale. McGinty and a passenger, NBC television photographer Bob Donahue, 51, of Baldwin, N.Y., were injured when their plane crashed on landing. McGinty was hospitalized with serious injuries. Donahue suffered minor bruises.

Hotel Consultant Dies In Scranton

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP) — Eugene D. Casey, 65, an executive of the hotel bearing his family's name, died Friday at Mountain Rest Home here.

Casey had been manager of Hotel Casey until he gave up the post two years ago and assumed the role of consultant. His health had been poor for several years.

He is survived by his widow, four brothers, and two sisters.

ATTORNEY FINED

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Henry I. Jacobson, 51, an Ambler attorney, has been fined $5,250 and placed on three-year probation for filing false applications to the Veterans Administration to obtain government-insured loans for the purchase of real estate.

Jacobson tried unsuccessfully in 1963 to join the New York City Police Department. He passed all tests for patrolman except a character examination.

Planes Blast Red-Infested S.V.N. Areas

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam

— U.S. and South Vietnamese planes struck heavily against a Communist-infested jungle area east of Saigon today and ground forces quickly followed in the largest helicopter airlift of the war.

The action started shortly after dawn and by late afternoon military briefing officers said they had no reports of engagements with the Viet Cong. But they stressed this did not mean that contact had been made.

The tangled area of jungle and undergrowth is in Phuoc Tuy Province, east of the South Vietnamese capital. Vietnamese troops have been grappling there for several days with the elusive Communist jungle fighters.

USE 137 CRAFT

The helicopter airlift numbered 137 aircraft, mostly troop carriers. The largest previous helicopter airlift numbered 115 aircraft.

Military authorities said one of the helicopters went down due to mechanical failure. The airlift was preceded by a strike of 20 U.S. Air Force B-57 jets and 40 propeller driven Skyrays flown by Vietnamese pilots.

Late in the afternoon another strike of B-57s swept down on the area.

It appeared likely that the massive "search and destroy" operation was supported by troops moving in from surrounding areas on the ground.

But military spokesmen said "we cannot discuss the troops units involved."

The other plane was piloted by Alger McGinty of Fort Lauderdale. McGinty and a passenger, NBC television photographer Bob Donahue, 51, of Baldwin, N.Y., were injured when their plane crashed on landing.

McGinty was hospitalized with serious injuries. Donahue suffered minor bruises.

Executions Of 9 Men Are Stayed

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — At least a 13-month stay has been granted nine men on death row at the Kentucky State Penitentiary at Eddyville.

Gov. Edward T. Breathitt says he will not sign execution orders until the 1966 State Legislature can act on the death penalty issue.

The state — which has the death penalty for murder, rape and armed robbery — has executed 162 men in its electric chair since the device was installed in 1911. The last execution was on March 2, 1962.

The governor's task force on criminal justice is reviewing the death penalty. A bill to abolish executions cleared the Kentucky House of Representatives in 1964, but died in a Senate committee.

Dynamite, HandGrenades, Bazookas Found In Man's Apartment; Fear For King

By ANDREW JAFFE
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police tightened security around civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Friday, while searching for a man they described as a white racist who may be armed with high explosives.

Detectives said they found boxes of stolen dynamite and other explosives Thursday night in the apartment of Keith D. Gilbert, 27, a gun dealer already awaiting trial on the charge of attempting to kill a man — a Negro — last September.

Two men later were picked up for questioning in connection with the theft. Subsequently, they were booked on suspicion of burglary.

Officers said the boxes found in Gilbert's apartment had been opened, and it was not known whether any dynamite or ammonium nitrate — an unstable chemical which vastly increases explosive potential — was missing.

The explosives found, however, were those taken from a powder company magazine early Thursday morning, police reported.

THREAT TO KING

Several hours after the theft an anonymous caller said the dynamite would be used to kill Dr. King.

Police identified the two men booked on suspicion of burglary as Rodney Chesney, 42, and his nephew, Ronald Bartell, 24, both of nearby Sunland.

Also in Gilbert's apartment, police said, were bazookas, a mortar, hand grenades and application forms for a group one officer identified as The Minute men.

Detective Lt. Manuel Pena said that there was no indication Gilbert was responsible for the threats against Dr. King's life, but reported a tight security cordon had been thrown around the civil rights leader as a precaution.

Dr. King spoke to 2,000 guests at a World Affairs Council luncheon and then went Thursday night to a special benefit screening of "The Greatest Story Ever Told."

King plans to return Monday to Selma, Ala., for a renewal of his voter registration drive.

Switzerland To Oust Foreigners

BERN, Switzerland (AP) — The Swiss government decreed Friday that 5 per cent of all foreign workers must leave the country by June 30.

The decree, the most drastic step since World War II to reverse the influx of foreigners, will affect about 40,000 workers in Switzerland, mostly Italians, Germans, Austrians, Spaniards and Portuguese.

The decree requires all Swiss enterprises to discharge 5 per cent of their foreign workers by June 30. A further cut of up to 5 per cent was foreseen for the 12-month period ending June 30, 1966.

SPORTSCASTER DIES

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A pioneer sports broadcaster, William Murphy, died Friday at his home of a heart ailment. He was 61.

Munday was a sports announcer for the National Broadcasting Co. in the 1920s. He was employed by the Georgia state of Georgia sports broadcasts.

U. S. DENIES SOVIET CHARGE IN CURT NOTE

MOSCOW (AP) — The United States Friday curtly denied Soviet charges of military interference in South Viet Nam in a note dealing with protests over alleged U.S. harassment of Soviet ships.

The note, delivered to the Foreign Ministry by messenger, was in reply to a Soviet protest Monday.

The U.S. note said Soviet charges of violations by American aircraft and naval vessels of Soviet ships are "under investigation," and promised to inform the Russians of the findings.

The Soviet note also said its ships were being harassed in waters off Indochina and added that a dangerous situation has been created by U.S. "military interference" in the area.

DENIES ACCUSATION

The American note sharply retorted that the U.S. government "cannot agree with the contention in the reference note that 'military interference' of the United States of America in the affairs of South Viet Nam has created a dangerous hotbed of international tension."

The U.S. note added: "The currently dangerous situation in Southeast Asia is the direct result of intervention and aggression launched by North Viet Nam against its neighbors. Should this aggression cease, the international tension mentioned in the note of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs would immediately cease to exist."

INDICT 8 FOR TAX Evasion

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Eight persons have been indicted by a federal grand jury on charges of income tax evasion involving understatement of income totaling $335,042.

U.S. District Judge Alfred L. Luongo issued bench warrants for eight Thursday.

U.S. Atty. Drew J.T. O'Keefe said the indictments included:

Charles J. McCue, 63, a Bryn Mawr stockbroker and president of the Atlas Storage Co., accused of evading $15,983 in personal income tax and $863 in corporate income tax in 1958-1959.

Nicholas Zukovich, 49, of Tamaqua R.D. 2, operator of a grocery store in McAdoo, Schuylkill County, charged with evading $1,971 taxes.

Robert M. Schwartz, 34, owner of the Cove Bar in Levittown, indicted on charges of failing to pay $395 taxes in pinball machines.

In addition, O'Keefe charged Charles J. Cullen, 41, of Yardley, and Leonidas G. Vastardis, 38, of Reading, with failure to file income tax returns.

Sammy Jackson Believes In Hard Work

By RUTH E. THOMPSON

Sammy Jackson has been sure since the age of eight that he'd be a big star. And pretty much all the 20 intervening years since, he's worked as methodically as a researcher and daringly as a do-or-die sales manager.

"Yet when Frank Sinatra said, 'You're OK, kid,' I just couldn't believe it. I thought he meant something like 'come back next week and we'll talk some more,'" Sammy recalls.

"Don't you understand?" Frank said, "the part is yours. Here's the contract."

ABC FEATURE

And that's how a virtual unknown got the star part of Will Stockdale in the ABC serial version of "No Time For Sergeants."

Sammy says, yes it's absolutely true. His first contact with Jack Warner was a letter of application written from his home town, Henderson, N.C. He had never met the movie deity . . . but that showmanship-vein inside told him to type a winsome note in red, right on the letter, appealing to a secretary (whom he'd also never met) to "at least let Mr. Warner see this letter."

WARNER IMPRESSED

Warner obviously was impressed by what he read, sent a plane ticket so Jackson could do the pilot. Then a quick dissolve again — there he was in the office of Frank Sinatra (wearing his executive hat). Sinatra also cast him almost immediately for the movie, "None But The Brave."

Sammy smiles some . . . but not as often as Will, and not as radiantly. "I give Will a lot of teeth, it suits him, IS THE WAY Sammy puts it."

WORKED HARD

"But for myself, I've worked hard. I still do. I'm one of those overnight successes that took seven years to happen. And I spent most of those years right in Hollywood.

"I give Will lots of teeth, it suits him," is one of the signs that distinguishes the fairly solemn Sammy Jackson from the starring character in "No Time for Sergeants." The series is on Mondays, 8:30 p.m., on ABC.

"I'd followed the show business papers every day, followed up every possible lead, worked at a lot of jobs, including some acting. In fact, I had a small part in the movie which starred Andy Griffith.

"But because of a death in the family, I felt I should go home at least for awhile, and that's how I happened to have to make my application by mail."

RADIO SHOW

By that time Sammy could have considered himself more than a fair success in his home territory. He had a daily disc jockey radio show, a weekly TV show, and a five-piece combo for personal appearances.

But acting — in Hollywood — never stopped being his goal. "After I saw my first Paul Muni film, I was decided. We had no live theater so I saw all the movies I could. And I read every book on acting and the theater that our local library held."

"WAS LUCKY"

Most important, he feels, is that he could talk about the dream around the house. "My parents just went along with it. Never once did they ridicule. I was very lucky."

Then, when Sammy was 17, the father was hurt in an accident. Sammy became the breadwinner, even worked as a miner which he hated. But when he was 21, things if not luxurious at home, at least seemed stable enough for him to hitch hike to Hollywood, get busy on the career and start sending money home.

SENDS MONEY HOME

In recent months of course, he's sent home enough to rebuild the homestead for his parents. But he hasn't learned yet to spend much money on himself, or much time on recreation.

"I have all I need, a small apartment across the street from the studio. I use most of the weekends to go over scripts for the next week. I've worked too hard to get where I am to laze off now."

"No special girl," is what he said during our interview, but a friend tells me he's confided elsewhere, "I'm in love with my leading lady Laurie Sibbald — but I already have enough responsibilities without getting

"GOING PLACES"

Sinatra has been quoted as saying Sammy is really going places. Andy Griffith puts the same sentiment another way: "Sammy's going to be a big star. And he deserves it. He drives hard, but he's nice." Sammy has been a guest at the Griffith home, but irony being what it is, Griffith has never seen his successor as Will Stockdale because their current series are on different channels at the same time.

LEARN BY WATCHING

Since there was no drama school back home, the tall well-knit Sammy says "I've learned to do my learning by watching. And I think I've learned most just by watching Sinatra. The only person he's hard on is himself."

"One Puka, Puka."

One hopes that the nice young

ELECTRIC LIVING GUIDE

All rights reserved. H. T. Dickson &amp; Co., Inc., New York.

IT DOESN'T TAKE A PRIVATE EYE

"You might have needed some inside info five years ago to get on the trail of the hottest item in home heating, but today you have only to look at the nearest listing of electrical contractors."

That's how an electrical heating association executive opened a luncheon club speech. And that one sentence pretty much sums up a consumer's eye view of complete electric home heating systems.

"Maybe five years ago you didn't even know that the 'fuel of tomorrow' had been perfected. Now you'd be missing your best bet in long-term comfort to overlook it. And that goes either for new houses, or for the reconstructing of your present house and conversion to electric heat."

"Hottest" Explained—

"Hottest" — all play on words aside—the speaker explained, meant "deliverable heat."

Electricity is the only fuel which can be delivered to the actual area of use, say the living room, and therefore is the only 100% usable fuel.

In actual usage, electrical heating equipment (and there are a variety of types available) is "highly sophisticated." Thermostat setting and room heat are guaranteed to within half a degree of accuracy as a rule, even at ceiling height. Yet, the heating unit itself — say an electrical baseboard—is never more than comfortably warm to the touch.

"You have to give the industry credit for making sure it understood electric heat as a product before mass marketing began. And you know, with all due reverence, Edison himself didn't show that much restraint with his early inventions — including the light bulb! You could buy the early type with perfections to follow later.

"Not so with electric heat. Folks who've been investing — and over two million families have these past five years — can expect their electric heating systems to be giving good service 20 years from now."

In addition to perfecting its own equipment, the electric heating industry has been widely commended for seeking out and making known accurate information about the types and amounts of insulation which will assure maximum utilization. Growth of installations has exceeded all expectation.

QUESTION BOX

Q. When is the right time to change-over to an electric heating system?

A. Now.

That is, if "now" is a convenient time for you to put up with the somewhat minor inconveniences of some replastering, etc., that will accompany the new wiring and (as needed) updated insulation. It's the condition of your insulation more than anything that determines how much work needs to be done. The installation of the electric heating itself is comparatively easy. Be assured, however that when you're guided by a knowing contractor, the momentary inconvenience can be pretty much limited to one portion of the dwelling at a time.

Q. How can an electric heating system work without a furnace?

A. Because the fuel can be delivered directly to the room heating element. Since "the fuel" is electricity it's ready to go to work with no ducts and no pipes needed.

Q. Have heard that electric heat is called instant? Exactly what does that mean?

A. Exactly what it says. Electricity travels at the speed of light. Flip that switch and electric fuel has started work. Or, as you've heard; yes, it's instant!

Q. How do you find out how well equipped a house is for electrical living?

A. We quote the advice of the Edison Electric Institute: "To find out if a home is really equipped for modern electrical living you could inspect the lighting, count the switches, check the appliances that come with it and still you wouldn't be sure if there's enough house-power for present and future needs.

"In a home which displays the Gold Medallion, all this inspecting has been done for you. And if the house doesn't meet the electrical industry's high standards — no Medallion."

Q. Is three-zone heating customary in electric systems?

A. Since total electric home heating isn't hamstrung by old-type equipment limitations, most electrically heated houses go rings around the three-zone system. With electric heating you can have an individual thermostat in every room.

How This Newspaper Helps Advertisers...

By earning this symbol

A well known symbol is like a good reputation—difficult to establish and even more difficult to maintain.

During your daily activities—in your store or in your home—you come into contact with many trade marks that symbolize an assured measure of performance or quality. They may range from initials on an electrical appliance to words like "sterling" or "prime."

Like its counterparts, the membership symbol of the Audit Bureau of Circulations* provides you with a reliable measure of our circulation performance, based on the highest standards known for either print or broadcast media.

The A.B.C. symbol cannot be purchased—it must be earned through performance. Continued use of this symbol is predicated on our ability to maintain these highest standards of circulation value.

Whenever you think of advertising media, it will pay you to ask, "Does it measure up to A.B.C. standards?" You can be sure it does if you use the advertising columns of—
